Try New! Find New! Get New!

これが 2016 年のテーマでした。開会式から閉会式まで度々口にしました。もちろん「3 Ships (Leadership, Followership, Friendship) の追求」が我々のメインテーマです。しかしながら、この理念をキャンプサイトで具体化することは常に困難でもありました。相手は 10 代。期間も 1 週間。どんなプログラムが 3 Ships につながるのか。どんなアクティビティーが 3 Ships を育むのか。そもそも、人と人をつなぐさまざまな間柄の中で、なぜ 3 Ships を重視するのか。スタッフは毎年その答えを求めて話し合い、知恵をしぼってきたのでした。

私見ですが、3 Ships を次のように考えます。人間は自分の集団を支え、次代に引き継ごうとする生き物です。それも、なるべく低いストレスで。宗教や礼儀作法や法律なども、ある意味ストレス低減策と言えるでしょう。3 Ships も同じです。この三つがない集団には潤いも共感もないでしょうから。ただ、ストレス低減に走ると無難な選択や前例踏襲が増え、集団は活気を失います。未知のこと、未経験のことに挑むこと。それが活気と、うまくいけば達成感さえ生むのです。

今年もスタッフは数カ月を費やしてキャンプのプログラムを組みました。その中でうまれたのが今年のテーマです。分かりやすい言葉だったおかげでしょう、会期半ばにはキャンパー同士も使い始めていました。そうやって事故もなく充実したキャンプが実現できたのも多くの方々のご協力の賜物です。我々の感謝の気持ちとともに、本報告書をお受け取りください。

Try New! Find New! Get New!

These were the theme of 2016. We often used them from the opening ceremony to the closing one. Of course, our main theme is "the pursuit of 3 Ships (Leadership, Followership, Friendship)". However, it was always difficult to take form at the camp site with teenagers in only one week. What program will lead them to 3 Ships? What activities will encourage them to develop 3 Ships? In the first place, why do we emphasize 3 Ships in various relationships? Every year the staff of our camp asked for the answer and talked about it.

I think 3 Ships as follows. Human beings are the creatures that support their band and will take it over to the next generation without great stress. You could regard religion, etiquette, law, etc. as stress reduction systems. 3 Ships is the same. In any group without them, the member of it could not feel sweetness or empathy. However, if the members pursue to reduce stress too much, they would often take safe choices and follow the precedent. Then the group must lose its life. The search for unknown. The challenge to first experience. Those will make group lively. If those go well, you will even get a sense of accomplishment.

This year our staff took several months to organize our program as usual. The theme of this year was born in that process. Thanks for being an easy-to-understand words, our campers were beginning to use them each other in the middle of camp period.

It was the result of the cooperation of many people that we were able to realize a full camp without an accident. Please accept this report along with our gratitude.

PRIC 2016 キャンプ 計 画 編

PRIC 2016 Camp Plan Section

概 要

環太平洋学生キャンプは、環太平洋地域の国々12カ国・1地域（アメリカ、インドネシア、オーストラリア、カナダ、韓国、シンガポール、タイ、中国、日本、ニュージーランド、フィリピン、マレーシア、香港）からの中・高校生を対象に、国際交流を目的に行われているキャンプです。このキャンプは、認定特定非営利活動法人（認定NPO法人）環太平洋学生キャンプ、日本テレビ放送網株式会社が主催し、後援、協賛各社、ボランティアスタッフによって運営、実施されています。

沿 革

「環太平洋学生キャンプ」はわが国で最も歴史が古く、最も権威ある高校生のための教育キャンプ「全日本学生キャンプ(AJSC)」の伝統と実績の中から生まれました。

「全日本学生キャンプ」は、1951年（昭和26年）に読売新聞社が創設したわが国で初めての組織的な教育キャンプで、全国各地から毎年夏に約100名の男子高校生が一週間のキャンプ生活を通して「友情(Friendship)・協力(Followership)・奉仕(Leadership)」の精神の体得に努めてきました。また、毎年参加者の中から、日本の中学・高校生の代表を選び、アメリカの国際キャンプ「キャンプ・ライジング・サン(CRS)」に派遣して、青少年の国際交流に先駆的役割を果たしてきました。

1985年（昭和60年）には、国連が定めた「国際青年の年」に、これまでの日本国内の学生を対象としてきたキャンプを環太平洋地域へ拡大した国際交流プロジェクトを実施しました。以来、今年で通算66年、国際キャンプの実施は32年目を迎えます。

1999年（平成11年）には、特定非営利活動促進法の施行に伴い、東京都よりNPO法人の認証を得ました。2015年（平成27年）からは「認定特定非営利活動法人（認定NPO）」

Introduction

Pacific Rim International Camp (PRIC) is a scholarship camp program that provides a forum of international exchange for youths of the Pacific Rim region. The camp is supported by corporate and individual contributions and operated by Approved NPO Pacific Rim International Student Camp and volunteer staff. Together we create an ideal outdoor-oriented summer educational experience for high school-aged campers from countries and region around the Pacific Ocean; those representatives are Australia, Canada, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Japan, South Korea, Malaysia, New-Zeland, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and the United States.

History

PRIC was founded in 1985 as the successor to the foremost educational camp for high school students in Japan, the All Japan Student Camp (AJSC).

AJSC was established by The Yomiuri Shim-bun, a leading national newspaper, in 1951 as the first educational camp to develop future leaders of Japan, when the country was on the path of reconstruction from the devastation of World War II. Every summer, approximately 100 high school students gathered from all over Japan to experience friendship, leadership, and followership by camping together in wilderness. From among these students, one was chosen each year to represent Japan at Camp Rising Sun, an international scholarship summer camp founded in upstate New York, U.S.A., in 1930. Today over 3,000 alumni of AJSC are playing active roles in a wide range of fields in Japan and overseas.

On the occasion of the United Nations International Youth Year in 1985, the camp was expanded to include campers and staff from other countries of the Pacific Rim, a move that was made possible thanks to the generosity of corporate donors.

「法人)環太平洋学生キャンプ」として活動をしています。

目 的

＜国際プロジェクトの目的＞

1. 青少年同士のふれあいを通じて国際理解を深める。
2. 海外の青少年に「素顔の日本」を体験させ、現状を正しく認識させる。

＜キャンプの目的＞

環太平洋地域から集まった青少年に、雄大な自然環境のもとで組織的なキャンプを経験させることにより、

(1) 共同生活を通じて

「友情(Friendship)・協力(Followership)・奉仕(Leadership)」の精神を体得させる。

(2) 学校生活・趣味・将来の志望などの意見交換を通じて、相互理解と人格形成に役立たせる。

(3) 自然環境を通じて、人と自然の共生、地球環境問題に関心を持たせる。

内 容

このプロジェクトは、大きく3つの部分から成っています。

第1の部分は、キャンプです。60年以上に及ぶ長い青少年野外教育の経験から、青少年の相互理解を短期間に最も深く最も効果的なものにするための手段は、大自然の中の共同生活『キャンプ』であると確信しています。

第2の部分は、国際理解教育です。実施するプログラムを通して、海外の青少年に我が国の正しい歴史、文化を伝えるとともに、国内参加の青少年に、諸外国の異なる言語、文化や習慣を理解し、互いに尊重し合って共に生きていく資質や能力を育成します。

第3の部分は、海外参加者のホームステイです。ホームステイは、我が国の家庭の実状を知

This shift to an international camp was the beginning of what has since been known as Pacific Rim International Camp.

Objectives

In order to help meet the challenges of globalization, PRIC aims to promote cultural appreciation and international friendship through close interaction day in and day out among the campers. It is a miniature version of the highly diversified Pacific Rim in a Japanese setting. The camp's goal is to help the campers learn the importance of personal contribution in building a multinational society based on friendship.

As the camp is hosted in Japan, we feel it is both our privilege and our obligation to inspire cultural appreciation among the campers through opportunities to see Japan—both traditional and modern—with their own eyes. We trust this will in turn induce appreciation for other cultures and contribute to the building of a truly diversified society.

In the spirit of traditional summer camps, PRIC endeavors to provide a character-building experience by encouraging friendship, leadership, and followership. Based on over 60 years of experience, we believe that the most effective means of promoting such ideals in a limited period of time is communal living. The camp additionally strives to educate the campers about nature and deepen their appreciation for the environment.

In sum, PRIC's programs and activities are designed to train the body, mind, and spirit towards creating young international pioneers; the leaders of tomorrow.

Features

This is a scholarship camp fully supported by donation of corporations and individuals with goodwill and comprehension for PRIC. The camp is conducted mostly in English language with some Japanese. It takes place in three locations. Firstly, Tokyo and its vicinity is the place where Pre-camp and Post camp programs will be held. CFAs will find here traditional and contemporary Japan, both in culture and technology, as well as city life. Secondly, Nishikatsura town, near the Mt. Fuji, 100km west of Tokyo in Yamanashi Prefecture is the town where campers will have 4 days home-stay program. This program is planned, coordinated and executed by a volunteers' committee of the town in close contact with us, and is also encouraged by the town council. The program includes goodwill exchange with local schools, going to the Mt. Fuji, etc. However, the main stage of the camp is National Takato Youth Center. This facility is located in Nagano Prefecture, almost center of Honshu, main island. The program here consists of a variety of outdoor activities in the surrounding mountains and lakes, cultural exchange program presenting countries and regions each other, also promoting the ideas for the environmental reserve and protection. Outdoor cooking is another feature to enjoy and learn versatile culture among campers.

PRIC 2016 キャンプ 実 施 編

PRIC 2016 Camp Execution Section

キャンプ事業報告／Convention Report

野営長・岩倉史門
Camp Director・Fumito Iwakura,

第32回環太平洋学生キャンプは総勢23名（国内参加者13名、海外参加者10名）で開催致しました。参加者は期間中のキャンププログラムを通して当会の目指す「友情・協力・奉仕」の精神を育むことができます。ここに全参加者が当会のキャンプを無事に修了したことをご報告致します。

MSD 生命科学財団様・三菱UFJ 国際財団様・こどもゆめ基金様をはじめとする寄付・助成団体様、個人寄付者の皆様、ホームステイプログラムを担う西桂町の皆様、プログラムの講師の皆様など、当会キャンプ実施にかかる全ての協力・関係者様のお力添えにこの場を借りて厚く御礼申し上げます。また、国内外のボランティアスタッフの力なくしては本キャンプを作り上げることはできませんでした。数か月に渡る事前準備ならびに期間中の皆様のご尽力に感謝の意を表します。

第32回環太平洋学生キャンプでは前身の全日本学生キャンプ（AJSC）から引き継ぐ「友情・協力・奉仕」の精神を参加者の皆さんに感じとっていただくことを目的として準備を進めて参りました。実行委員会およびボランティアスタッフは3つの精神を再定義し、プログラムを通して気づきを与えることをミッションとして活動しました。

効果的なプログラム進行はチーフスタッフを中心にプログラムスタッフがプログラムごとにストーリーを構築したことによる賜物だと考えています。なお、プレススタッフには参加者が発揮する3つの精神を切り取るべく記録写真を撮影するよう依頼しました。ぜひ本報告書内の記録写真をご覧ください。

Pacific Rim International Camp 2016 (PRIC 2016) was safely over with providing the opportunity for all the participants (13 campers from Japan and 10 campers from abroad) to enhance the 3 minds; friendship, followership and leadership.

We appreciated all donors especially Banyu Life Science Foundation International, Mitsubishi UFJ Foundation and Kodomo Yume Fund to hold such a unique camp. Also, thank you for Nishikatura town to take care of campers from abroad on the homestay program. We would like to say thank you to all cooperators and parties in concerned. Moreover, volunteer staffs made great efforts for preceding our successful camp not only during camp but also before and after camp.

The most important purpose of our camp in this year was approaching the 3 minds; friendship, followership, and leadership. Our 3 prior minds of PRIC have been handed down through former body (All Japan Student Camp). The student volunteer staffs determined the definition of those minds as bellow. They planned camp programs for the campers to notice or learn those minds.

Without the efforts of student volunteer staffs, we never succeeded PRIC 2015. They did organized camp program well. Not only management staffs but also program staffs and press staff focused on 3 prior minds. Please see photos on this reporting book.

さて、本年度はゲームチェンジラボ様（以下、同社）の協力を得て、新しいプログラムを展開しました。新しい試みであるだけでなく、NPOとしての新しい形模索する機会となりました。

➤ 外部との協業

同社より、2015年に国連で採択された「我々の世界を変革する:持続可能な開発のための2030アジェンダ」に基づく持続可能な開発目標(SDGs)の達成までを体感するカードゲーム2030SDGsの日本語版の提供を受け、当NPOが英語版を作成しました。民間企業とNPOが協業する新しいモデルを確立できました。

➤ 社会にインパクトを与える人材の育成

2030SDGsは現代を生きる我々が直視しなければならない課題を提示しています。カードゲームを通して参加者はよりよい社会を形成するにはどのような行動が求められるのか考える契機となりました。

➤ NPOとしての成長

今回の協業から当会は英語版2030SDGsを活用することについて同社より了解を得ました。今後、大学あるいは国際系学生団体、さらには中学・高校生へ展開し、当会を広く認知頂けるような活動を進めていきたいと考えています。

環太平洋学生キャンプは時代の要請に応えながら国際社会を牽引する人材を輩出すべく努力を続けて参ります。スタッフを含めたすべての参加者が3つの精神を養うことのできる質の高い、体験価値を提供していく所存です。

最後に、今後も私たち環太平洋学生キャンプが国際教育キャンプ事業を通して次代を担う若者に気づきの場を与え続けるためには、皆様からのご協力を仰がねばなりません。引き続き、当会事業趣旨をご理解頂き、暖かなご支援とご協力を賜りますようお願い申し上げます。

Thanks to The Game Change Lab, for this year, we introduced a new camp program. It was not only challenging but also a chance for forming our organization.

➤ Collaborate with externals

We create the new model that NPO and private company helped each other. The Lab offered a Japanese card game called 2030SDGs which was based on sustainable development goals showing in “Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development”. And, we translated the card game into English.

➤ Developing social entrepreneurship

2030SDGs shows us the issues which we have to solve. It was a good opportunity for campers to think some of them through the game. We believe they recognize how the move forward.

➤ New growth engine

The Game Change Lab allows us to use the game for our promotion activity. We will approach not only university students but also high school or junior high school students to drive our international education program.

Responding to the demand of the present age, PRIC will be continued in order to produce people valuable to globalization with giving the chances and making high-quality experience for not only campers but also student volunteer staffs.

Finally, we always appreciate your understanding of our project and your ongoing cooperation and support enable us to provide such opportunities for next youth through undertaking our international and educational camp.

Pre Camp Day 1 (3rd, Aug)

In that morning, CFA had the orientation, which included the explanation of PRIC, other his own introduction, ice break by SFA and the practice of the songs of campfire. Thanks to these things, CFA could understand PRIC 2016 and get along with each other. In that afternoon, they went to Edo Tokyo Museum in Ryogoku by JR train. They learnt not only the culture and history of Edo era but also the ones of Meiji, Taisho, Showa era, listening to the exposition of the interpreter and looking at the exhibition. After getting back to their accommodation, they separated four groups and then had discussion in order to decide the plan of the free action of the afternoon tomorrow, using the map of JR railway and the data of the tourist sites of Tokyo. We would like them to find many aspects of Japanese culture. That's why we had the restriction that they had to choose one place in one category.

In the end all groups decided the plan, considering the time, distance and purpose.

Pre Camp Day 2 (4th, Aug.)

In that morning, they made a food sample, mini-parfait in Kitaikebukuro. They enjoyed it, choosing the fruits as the arrangement and making the suitable shape of mini-parfait with fresh cream made from silicon. After finishing it, they went to Ikebukuro station and then separated four groups. The free action started. Each group went to the destination and had the lunch, following their plans. They went to many kinds of place, for example, Kanda shrine, The Imperial Palace, Tokyo Tower, Akihabara and so on. That's why they could find not only many aspects of Japanese culture but also the difference between Japan and their countries. After finishing the free action, they returned NOMIC, their accommodation, and they discussed Japanese culture and the different point between Japan and their countries in each group. After all group conclude their discussion, each group had presentation about the free time and their conclusion of discussion, showing their pictures which they had taken in free time. Thanks to it, they could share much information about Japan and their countries.

Homestay Program in Nishikatsura Town

After visiting Maglev Center, CFA were warmly welcomed by the local students, their homestay families and the mayor of the town in Nishikatsura junior high school. The homestay program in Nishikatsura town started here. On the second day, they joined the Amazing Race, a kind of treasure hunting game with the local junior high school students and then went to Mt. Fuji. They walk around the half of Mt. Fuji, listening to the explanation of guide. In the end, they participated in the welcome party in Shikadome drive-through. They changed clothes into Japanese traditional ones. After the speech of the manager of homestay and the mayor of Nishikatsura, CFAs and the local students sing the songs, for example, Pokemon song and some Japanese POP songs. They enjoyed all events so much. On the third day, each of CFAs spent the time with their host families. On the last day, they exchanged with the local elementary school students in Nishikatsura elementary school through some games. After that, they played soccer with the junior high school boys. The four-day three night homestay past in a moment, and the CFAs leave the town for the camp site. They hugged their host families and parted reluctantly, some were crying. This means they had good relationship with their homestay families and the local people.

Messages from CFAs

The homestay program was the part of PRIC I was most nervous about. Knowing no Japanese and having never done a homestay alone before, I was terrified. My family was incredibly kind from the very beginning, and despite not knowing much English, always talked to me and answered my questions. They welcomed me into their family straight away and although I spent only a few nights with them, I will miss them very much! Thank you totemo totemo much, hope to see all of you in Australia!

My Homestay family were extremely welcoming and I'm so happy I got to stay with them. I learned a lot about Japanese culture from the kids and they helped me understand lots of things I couldn't read in Nishikatsura. Sunny and I both wanted to thank them for all their efforts and their kindness throughout the camp. They honestly made my trip so much better and I'm so glad I got to meet them and spend time with them. Hopefully we will meet again.

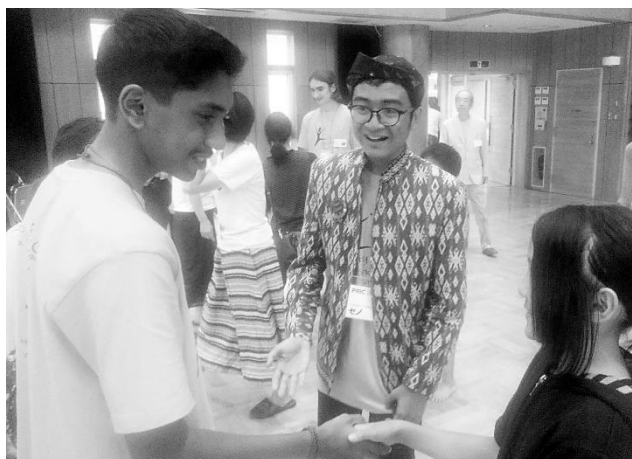

Nishikatsura Homestay

Friday-Monday, August 5-8, 2016
Pacific Rim International Camp

The homestay program was really good. I think one of the best part of PRIC2016. My host family were really kind. I miss them a lot. I want to meet them again in the future.

Ask I always said to everyone about my homestay experience in Japan, I have met a new family. A new family consisting of a very warm and welcoming people that I already miss since the first time I left Nishikatsura town. The feeling of having a family there somehow made it easier for me to understand the complexicity of the culture richness of Japanese suburban are. It is such a pleasure for me to know more about the daily life of Japanese people, which is actually the mixture of the dinamics of modern life and the taste of traditional accents. A lot of new things happened there and a lot of new things shared there, in Nishikatsura. Visiting Nishikatsura again is surely in my must-do list.

The homestay program was a mesmerizing and unforgettable moment for me, because from my host family, I learnt a lot from their culture , they was so caring and kind hearted, they bring me for sightseeing and etc. I was so lucky to have them as my host family. I hope I can meet them again and again.

Upon arrival at the school, I was impressed to hear their own rendition of "Shake it Off". I also discovered that Japanese likes to sing the karaoke. To the Kagami family, I am very grateful to you for taking care of me and Shane. I really had a great time with you especially eating sushi and and singing karaoke.

Otto-san, Okka-san, thank you so much for everything. You made us feel so welcome, and showed us so much kindness. We will remember our time spent with you for a long time, and we hope you will not forget us as well! :) Please visit Singapore some day! Once again, thank you so much and I hope to see you soon! Teh and I already miss your cooking and your music! ありがとうございました! ジャあまたね!

I learned a lot about the Japanese way of life during the Homestay program. Getting to know the Middle Schoolers and Elementary Schoolers was very eye opening, they had a lot to offer by just being themselves. I learned what growing up in Japan was like. My host family was amazing, one thing that was really nice was that whenever Justin or I had a question, it was always answered with 100% honesty. One of my favorite nights was the Karaoke night, everyone was so talented and i remember we sang for 3 hours straight. Overall the Homestay program was amazing and a experience i wont forget.

Main Camp Day 1

Pacific Rim International Camp

Opening Ceremony

This program was to declare the beginning of PRIC2016. The representative of the CFJs and each CFA hold their national flag during the ceremony. PRIC2016 began with the greeting from Mr. Iwakura, the camp director. At the last time, all members sang the PRIC anthem, "Banana song".

Before the Opening Ceremony and just after the CFAs arrival at TYC, the CFJs and staffs showed "Welcome Dance" (Music; We Are Golden. Design the dance; Yoshiko Nakagawa) to the CFAs. At first, the CFAs were very surprised at it, and all campers (including the CFAs) and staffs made a big circle and danced together with smile at the end of this dance. When the CFAs brought their luggage to camper's cabin, the CFJs of the same group helped them and talked about each other first time.

Welcome Fire

Welcome fire is the very first activity which all campers join. It starts from ignition by Yamabushi(board members) . Staff leads campers to sing, dance and play games. This program aims to remove the wall between staff and campers. It also aims to make an atmosphere of extra ordinary. The world we make in this program is very different from our daily lives. At the beginning of the program, campers look very nervous and they have no idea what to do. However, once it starts, they sing a lot, play games and enjoy. Camp songs beyond the handicap of languages.

Interview of Welcome Fire

Staff: Great. It was the first day in this camp. How was it today?

Camper: It was fun and it was great.

S: Thank you. And anyway, please be relaxed. Let's get started. You met CFJs for the first time today. Did you make friends with CFJs?

C: Yeah, I made one. His name is Daichi.

S: How could you connect with him?

C: He is in the same group, group P. he is very enthusiastic, picked my luggage and showed me where is toilet and his English was pretty good, so I had a good communication with him.

S: Do you know he is the second camper of PRIC?

C: Yeah, he told me. He told that he just started learning English maybe from year 4-5 by his father.

Main Camp Day 1

Monday, August 8, 2016
Pacific Rim International Camp

S: What kind of topic did you talk?

C: Young generation, maybe the education. Education is really different between Japan and Hong Kong.

S: I'll change topics. During the welcome fire which moment did you enjoy the most?

C: In fact, I enjoyed every moment. But if you ask me the best, it'll be handshaking, I mean the last part of the campfire. We have to greet everyone, it was really interesting because in Hong Kong, we just say hi to everyone. We just never done handshaking with everyone with respect. So I think it was quite good.

S: On the other hand, were there any nervous or concerned mind when you came here?

C: Maybe a little bit nervous because I've never been camp before. And they will collect our phones right? I'll lose connection with outside, so I'm a little bit nervous.

S: How about now?

C: I think quite good. I met new friends.

S: Better than yesterday?

C: Yeah.

S: What do you want to try from now?

C: I want to try everything as much as I can. You said Try new, get new in this camp. So I'll try to do my best in trying new but the first priority is to learn Japanese cultures, there're so many things I want to do.

Staff: It was the first day in this camp. How was it today?

Camper: I was very nervous but now I have fun.

S: Oh good. Now let's get started. You met CFAs for the first time today. Did you make friends?

C: Yes, Korean camper, Seong kyu.

S: Why could you connect with him so fast?

C: Anime topic, Bleach and Naruto.

S: I'll change topic from manga to welcome fire. What did you feel about welcome fire?

C: I had fun.

S: We thought you felt a little bit nervous, but now you said it was really fun, right? So what happened to you during welcome fire?

C: I sang in a loud voice even though I was shy.

S: You mean you could sing in loud voice than usual with other campers, right?

C: Yes.

S: As you said you had some feeling after the camp fire. What do you want to try from now on in this camp?

C: I want to talk with CFAs a lot.

Main Camp Day 2

Pacific Rim International Camp

Team Building Session

Team building session was conducted for icebreaking and building a team identity. Program was divided into 3 parts; human chain game, mock cavalry battle and team discussion. All campers worked on the program with people in their each team. During human chain game, campers tried to untangle their human chains with encouraging each other. During battles of mock cavalry, campers got excited, they were having discussion about the formation and strategies for battles. In the beginning of the program, some campers looked very nervous, however, at the end of the program, we could see all campers got relaxed. Through this program, campers seemed to get used to communicating with other campers naturally and actively.

Team Flag Making

Campers made team flag that is the symbol of each group. They designed flag based on their team name that was decided in Team Building Session. They tried to complete their design in limited equipment and cooperated each other such as some campers who are good at drawing direct and other campers brush up the design and paint with their nice idea. In morning gathering, each group introduced their group name and what the design means. Almost all campers tried to commit whole process of this program. In closing ceremony, everyone took photo with their flag.

Interview of Team Building Session & Team Flag Making

Staff: Hi Cameron. How are you?

Camper: Good how are you?

S: Good. You did well today.

C: Thank you

S: Let's get started. We just want to know what you feel. Which game did you like the best in the team building session?

C: Was that today? Which games? Oh I like the mock cavalry one, had the guys and legs and stuff. That was fun.

S: Did you get on the top?

C: No, I was too big. I would fall back

S: So you supported as a base?

C: Yes.

S: Good. How was crashing with others?

C: It was good, it was fun.

S: Thank you btw, what is your team name?

C: Our team name is a cheeseburger.

S: What does the name mean?

C: We chose cheeseburger just because it starts with C and cheeseburger has lots of toppings, each individual person is like a topping on a cheeseburger, making the final product really good.

Main Camp Day 2

Tuesday, August 9, 2016

S: Can I ask you how you express your team name into your flag?

C: We had kind of like a top b of burger on the flag. And we have something in each corner representing our countries. My country has a maple leaf for Canada, and Thailand is elephant, and Mt Fuji for Japan, Korea has something in the middle on the flag.

S: In team flag making, did you cooperate with your team member?

C: Yeah we helped each other.

S: What role did you play in your team?

C: I made a paint color, I did the maple leaf for my flag and helped outlining.

S: What were the other members' job? Especially I'm curious what Fuga did.

C: He did all of the drawing, original outline before we started drawing. He did really good job. He's very good at drawing

S: What's your favorite point of your flag?

C: Cheeseburger. That's the funny point. I like it.

Outdoor Cooking 1

Campers cooked curry and soup in accordance with the menu. In this program, they worked with their letter group (P, R, I, C). They had difficulties and fun in making one thing with group members. To ensure they succeed in Outdoor Cooking Program, role sharing and time management is very important. This was the first step leading to the other Outdoor Cooking programs.

Interview of Outdoor Cooking 1

Staff: Thank you very much for your cooperation to receive the interview. Let's talk about outdoor cooking. How was your team's curry and rice? Taste good?

Camper: The curry and rice was very nice. The soup was within like as much though. We put a lot of onion in the soup accidentally. It was a little bit disaster.

Everyone: (laughing)

S: how about your role?

C: I did wood chopping. I was very into it.

S: yeah everybody was. Have you ever chopped the wood?

C: sometimes in Australia, but I have never with a knife like that today. It was new experience.

S: that's why you enjoyed it.

C: Exactly!

S: Did you cooperate with other members well?

C: Yeah.

S: Who do you think was the MVP in the program?

C: Umm... the whole team!

S: That's great. Keep up the good work!

Main Camp Day 3

Canoeing

Hiking was canceled because campers were tired, so they went to Chiyoda lake by a car. However, it was fine day. That's why they could row a canoe without any obstacles in Chiyoda lake. At first, they were taught how to ride on a canoe, how to use a paddle and how to get off a canoe by the instructors of Fujita canoe. After that, each of them enjoyed canoeing. In that afternoon, they had the race and took pleasure in it. The members of the team which occupied first place were given the picture of Mt. Fuji in the commendation ceremony of the race. They got back to TYC by a car. After all, somebody got wet because they made a canoe overturn but nobody was injured, so they could enjoy it safely.

Robot Competition 1 & 2

On August 9th, campers did a game using robots. The rule of game was simple: players have to gather as many ball scattered on the game field as possible by using robots. These robots are like cars and players could program robots to go straight, turn left or right, and so on. Players also could install arms made of LEGO blocks on robots. Campers discussed and tried a lot and made not only their robots but also their relationship much better.

On August 10th, campers did a game using robots again. But the game was more difficult than ball-gathering game that they did yesterday. Using two robots, players had to carry a stick to the goal. The course was not straight and this made this game more difficult. In each group, all of campers expressed their creative opinion. Through the discussion they made a lot of efforts to understand each other. They cooperated with each other to achieve this challenging mission, and finally they made their own robots.

Interview of Robot Competition

Staff: Hi, Justin!

Camper: Hi!

S: How are you?

C: I'm good, thank you.

S: OK. You had Robot Competition today, so I will ask about it, how was it?

C: It was nice because it was good experience and new experience. I haven't tried to operate a robot before, it was a first time. And, we were able to get the highest points. We got first prize.

Main Camp Day 3

Wednesday, August 10, 2016
Pacific Rim International Camp

S: Great! What was your role in your team?

C: Well, for two days, I was a programmer at the first activity yesterday, and today I was also the programmer.

S: Oh, really?

C Yeah, because we had four programmers and two designers. Since we had to switch roles today. We talked about who would be designers. So out of the four programmers, we had to decide which one switch to the designer for the team. I was one of the two that didn't know how to operate the LEGO blocks. So we decided to give it to the other two members because they have more experience than us. So we thought it would be better if they were the ones who go to the designing team.

S: I see. Your team had a good judgement. Then please tell us the creative points of your robot.

C: When the program started, we had some difficulties in the wheels of one robot. So what we decided was we had to be creative in a sense to order the other robot to carry the robot. So what we did was we added more force to the one robot to carry the other robot to move in a certain direction. So I think that was a creative point.

S: Great! I saw your robot. I thought it was very good.

C: Thank you.

S: Did you cooperate with each other?

C: At first it was difficult for us to communicate because of the language. Since we had to switch partners, it was good because we were able to communicate well even though we had some difficulties. And it was nice because every one of us sustained to explain his or her thoughts and how to effectively achieve the goal of the robots.

S: Very good! Throughout this program, maybe you talked a lot with other teammates.

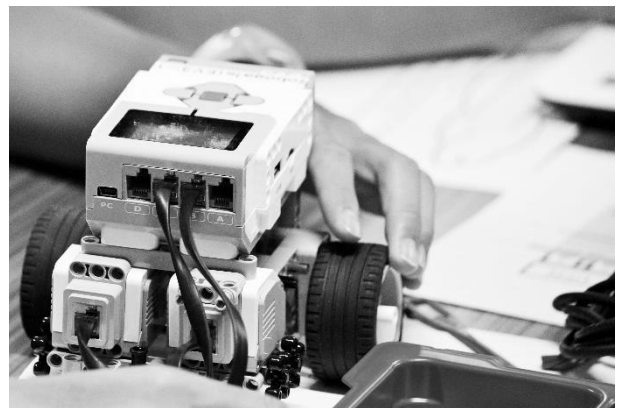

C: I did. Through this activity we became closer and we were able to not only talk about something but improve relationships of us, it's a working relationship which is nice. In future activities we can do a win-win work and we will be able to improve than the robot activity.

S: Great, very good! Your team is growing up, right?

OC: Yes.

S: OK, thank you. That's all for today's interview. Good night!

C: Thank you, good night!

Cultural Exchange by CFJ

On the 12th of Aug, Japanese campers did their presentation about Japanese culture to the campers from abroad. CFJs made presentations in English for this program. They struggled on how to express their ideas or concepts in preparation and they made the best to communicate with CFAs with sometimes using a non-verbal way. Language is not the way to make themselves understood. Moved by such CFJs effort, CFAs also made effort to understand even the cultural area where words cannot explain well.

Interview of Cultural Exchange by CFJ

Staff: How was your presentation? Did you do that well?

Camper: Yeah, I've done it better than I had expected.

S: What did you introduce on your presentation?

C: I introduced the spirit "Shogyomujou", which has been long told in Japan, with telling the tale of Heike and the explanation of situation at that era. I had lots of thing to tell them like the rhythm appeared in the tale of Heike and the prosperity and declining of the people who succeeded once. Among them, especially, the spirit "Shogyomujou" is the most, I wanted to tell. If they think it over after my presentation as one way of thinking, I'd be really happy.

S: What is the most important thing to communicate with the people from overseas?

C: I think, the essence of telling something is the same everywhere on the world. When I have a talk with the people from overseas, we can if we try. The ability of conversation we have trained somehow in our country, this can be used in any languages. The most important thing on conversation is the same. But we have to be careful on which word we should use. It takes lots of time to decide which word we should use but it's important.

Tea Ceremony

"Welcome to PRIC Tea Ceremony!" Through this program, campers experienced Japanese traditional culture, tea ceremony. Guest campers enjoyed host's entertainment with sweets and bitter Japanese tea. At the same time, CFJ served tea to guest. They checked the process each other again and again and did very well in the ceremony. After the ceremony, many campers couldn't walk normally because of sitting straight with his legs paralyzed but they helped each other. All of them did nice job and produced beautiful world of tearoom.

Main Camp Day 4

Interview of Tea Ceremony

Staff: How is your now image for Japanese culture through Tea Ceremony? Has the tea ceremony changed your impression of Japanese culture?

Camper: Japan has various acts of culture, I'm sure during my time in PRIC 2016, I've only scratched the surface, But yes, the tea ceremony changed my impression of Japanese culture. Without a doubt, immediately after the ceremony, it makes me feel like I want to know so much more about this interesting culture. I also see Japan's beauty like I've never seen before. It's something I will never forget.

Staff: Through this program, which part of tea ceremony let you feel Japanese taste? Did you think tea ceremony let you feel Japanese-style culture?

Camper: I think there was a lot of Japanese-style in tea ceremony. For example, how to sit, how to walk and how to drink. They were Japanese-style. In other country, they do not seiza on the zabuton. I think all of you can feel Japanese-style in the tea ceremony.

Dream Video

In the Dream Video, firstly we distributed the dream video work sheet to campers in the 2nd day of this camp. Through this sheet, campers could have a chance to consider their dream and the words of for themselves in 5 years later. In day 4, campers summarized their work sheet into 30 seconds speech and practiced to tell it in front of a camera. After the summary and practice time, staffs took the movie of their speech one by one. After that, a main staff edited the video and made 20minuts long video. This video has included messages from counselors to campers. We showed this video to campers in the last night of this camp in the cabin. Through this program, we could find unexpected faces of campers. Some of campers could show their inside by this program, I think. And also some of campers said to me that they were so moved by this video. We will send this video to campers "After 5 years" to remind campers of this camp, and of what they imagined and phrased at that time. We are really looking forward to seeing the growth of campers in 5 years later.

Outdoor Cooking 2

Campers cooked sukiyakidon and pumpkin salad. In this program, they worked with different member. Every group had at least the one member who had already gone through the role, so they all could cook them without the staff's instructions as you help each other. They shared what you learned Outdoor Cooking 1 with your new group members.

Treasure Food Hunting

On the 12th of Aug, fortunately with a great sunny, one of the most tiring and exciting event was conducted, Treasure Food Hunting. On this game, camper teams compete in each other in orienteering course over the treasure, FOOD. No Run, No Meal. It means they had to get ingredients for their dinner on this program. So, each team made some strategies to move around well in the wide and mountainous field. This crazy food hunting game also must have given campers the priceless delight to acquire food and make their own meal with their teammates.

Interview of Treasure Food Hunting

Staff: Did you collect the ingredient you wanted?

Camper: Yes, we did. We separated our team into two and my team got disappointingly just two ingredients. We had some wrong path in the first place. So we just went up to the mountain and no pose there. But we were very good at collecting points.

S: ok how did you make your group into two?

C: Actually it's automatically set like that by the group counselor. So we had to mix CFA and CFJ to know very well different countries.

S: Who was in your team?

C: My team members were Will from Australia and Daichi from Japan. But Daichi got sick and went back to cabin.

S: Your team got in trouble, then how could you recover it?

C: Actually we had some miscommunication at first. We just believed one command. We didn't discuss very well. We just believe Daichi's leadership. And then, we got wrong directions actually. And we did communicate after we had some wrong roots. And then, we repaired we came wrong, first time.

S: You didn't have any strategies or plans.

C: Actually we had a plan to go but we didn't really know how to do it. I mean which path we have to take and get stuffs. And so it was on very difficult road, just wasting our energy at first time.

S: Ok you said Daichi controlled your team. After his groggy, who got the control of your team?

C: So we discussed me and Will. And also Daichi also helped between us.

S: More like democracy.

C: That's true. One-man-leadership is not good.

S: How did you help your team?

Main Camp Day 5

Friday, August 12, 2016
Pacific Rim International Camp

C: As I said, where to go first and which is the easiest way to go because we didn't want to waste energy like some places. Yeah things like that.

S: I think it is not so easy to communicate with CFJ and make strategies or plans to get many ingredients. Then, what is the most important thing to communicate with CFA and CFJ?

C: I think the most important part is understanding each other, so that we know what each other wants for the dish or food. Make sure that everyone gets its opinion to share to other teams, so anyway to communicate is good enough for us to know each other.

S: Ok, in this camp, to achieve your goal you expressed now. What kind of effort do you do in your team?

C: In team? Night time also has gathering. So we talk much there. For last few days we already got some jokes sometimes with CFJs. That good, even we don't understand what we are talking about but we can still understand facial expressions and gestures. So communicating is not only about languages.

S: Really nice. OK, last part almost done. Say some comments to other campers.

C: For the campers CFAs and CFJs, the matter is PRIC is one of many ways to get communicate with a lot of people from global world. Make sure that we still have the connection after the camp. We know there are a lot of problems in the world in your county and in my country. After the camp, don't be with goodbye make sure that we hold our hands even tightly.

Cultural Exchange by CFA

From August 11th to 13th, campers from overseas had time for presentation about their countries. They introduced their countries effectively by using Power Point. They also brought some food or kind of souvenir and distribute them to other campers. Campers are so excited to know new cultures. After the presentation, campers made a song about each country. At the end they sang the songs!

Environmental Seminar

On the 13th of Aug, this camp underwent Sustainable Development Goals card game (SDGs). This game is designed for international society to achieve big 16 ends and 169 targets adopted by the UN Summit on 2015. Spending resources such as time and money card, each group executed project cards to achieve their given goals, which was to get lots of money for some groups and for others, to proceed environmental preservation. Interestingly, at the beginning, each group competed with each other over achieving their goal first but finally they collaborated with each other, so that every single group could reach its end. After this game activity, with a feedback of this game, all understood what we did in SDGs reflected what we, societies did in this world.

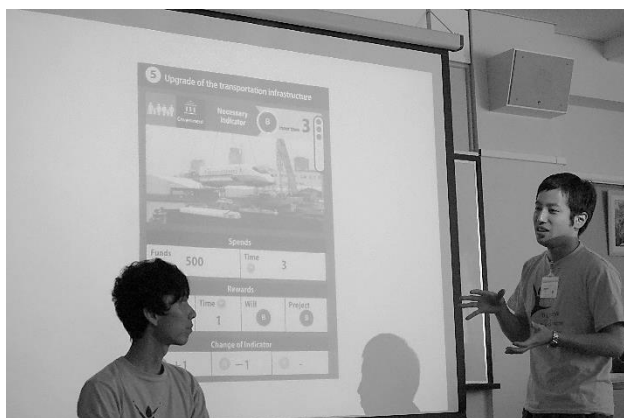

Interview of Environmental Seminar

Staff: How was the game?

Daichi: Interesting. It was unlike anything I encountered before.

Kentaro: It was like the, you know, actual society, so it was really interesting playing. And it was like “ah this is how it works.” Like that.

S: What is the difficult aspect in this game?

D: Ah so in this game, all game's objective is “win” but in this case to follow you to win. And you have to work with others also hope others to win. It's not a game where you have to compete against others. It's a game where everyone works for coming boats.

K: Balance of indicators were difficult because if you get one, you lose one, right? In most case. So it was really hard to make them all equal in the end.

S: In the conclusion of this program, the most important thing to make this world happy is cooperation, right? So how could you cooperate with each other?

D: I think we should try to communicate. I think it's my stereotype but most Japanese people don't try to communicate because most of foreigners, I think, it is good to try communicating. I think that would lead to those kind of cooperation.

K: I think, to mix makes the world happy. As he said, we need to cooperate and since we had the SDGs, we need to work towards their ends, maybe, put side of differences and maybe if we go for time to make sure that we don't get too cut up in our own goals.

S: OK thank you very much.

Daichi and Kentaro: thank you very much.

Camper's Theater

Campers' theater is an entertainment show time by campers. We, staff sent them e-mail beforehand to collect the information of their hobbies. Some of them can play instruments, some of others can dance, and we help campers to make a program using their skills. Campers had only few hours to make this program but they managed to organize it. 4 campers of MC guide others to operate and each camper show what they would like to do. This is campers' program. Campers had made everything. Both audience and entertainers could enjoy this program.

Interview of Camper's Theater

Staff: You played the piano and flute, how long have you played the piano and flute?

Camper: I've learned the piano since I was 4, so 11 years. And I've learned the flute for 6 years. Honestly I haven't practiced the flute long time.

S: Really? But it was great.

C: Thank you.

S: What is your challenging thing in this program?

C: In the camper's theater?

S: Yes.

C: Planning. As I said that P&R perform together I practiced half an hour before I stepped in.

S: Anyway, camp is almost over and we have camper's fire tomorrow. You will organize everything like this camper's theater. From your entertainment, do you want to do something same at camper's theater?

C: No, I don't think be a singer or a dancer.

S: There are only two days in the camp and I know you are missing already, but you have camper's fire tomorrow and then this program is totally planned by campers and there are no staff members. What can you do for the camper's fire?

S: You said can we do same performance?

C: No, I mean there are 24 campers in this year, campers make together, cooperation and then achieve the one goal, holding the camper's fire. At the time, what do you think what can you do for achieving the goal? In other words, how can you contribute to?

C: I think we need to sit down and discuss what we want to do to make it special.

S: We expect you. We are looking forward to your performance tomorrow.

Outdoor Cooking 3

This program is group to group cook competition. Campers planned and cooked dishes with the ingredients they got from Treasure Food Hunting. When they finished cooking, they gave presentation about dishes. They cooked by themselves remembering what they had experienced and learned and staff didn't help.

Camper's Fire

This was the very last program through this camp. Unlike other programs, campers themselves planned, created and operated all contents in order to express what they have learnt like 3ships including a leadership, followership, and friendship, or also like something new to try, find, and get. It means the fire was embodiment of what campers were at that time. They also expressed their gratitude for all of members involved PRIC2016 with their own words, singing, and dancing.

Interview of Camper's Fire

Staff: Today is the last day for this camp, and I'll want to ask you about the yesterday's Camper's Fire. Did you have a good time in campers' fire?

Camper: Yeah, I'm tired but very fun.

S: Could you communicate with other campers during the meeting for deciding who MC would be?

C: First, we have a bit trouble but after that we could get very well.

S: What was the trouble?

C: For example, when we were deciding what kind of the program we would do, we CFJs tended not to talk so much.

S: So you felt the situation was not so good for this discussion?

C: Yeah, but we got much better.

S: So I guess you have had a trouble in talking with CFAs or other campers before, but how about now? Can you feel free to contact with them?

C: Yes, now I can talk free to anyone.

S: So let's imagine the situation. Can you organize and enjoy the camper's fire like yesterday, if you have the program at first day of the camp?

C: No, I would be able to talk well with anybody, or it would be organized. So through the program, I think everyone's grown a lot.

S: Why could you make great camper's fire?

Main Camp Day 7

Pacific Rim International Camp

C: Because I think, in the end, everyone came together, and the camper's fire is for the staff that wanted to give back as much as we could for everything. The staff members gave us them. We came together and we could do the best.

S: Do you think what you could try, find, or get something new through the whole this camp?

C: Yes, because this year I was a second camper, I tried to be an example for not sure body did a good job. This is because the last year beginning, I wasn't able to talk to lots of people much, and only got you still the last few days, this year I did my best to be open minded from the very first day.

Staff: I guess it was hard to organize the meeting for camper's fire by yourselves. In the beginning of this camp, did you feel any difficulty in communicating with CFJs?

Camper: There were a little bit language barriers but it became nice because Kentaro, Kane, and Daichi both, spoke the language in Japanese and English, would be around or walking around, and they translated, so everything worked out including that time was kept going. I think it was nice.

S: What do you think was the most important thing for making the camper's fire great?

C: I think the best part of the camper's fire was that everyone was together and everyone was involved like no one was doing kind of half of singing, half of dancing or so. Everyone has a hundred percent of energy for dancing, singing, and so on. I looked around and just saw everyone, and raise my voice loudly like "singing, singing, singing" as large as I could. This was made it the best.

S: Do you think what you could try, find, or get something new through this camp?

C: I got new perspective. My perspective has been changed in a lot of things like a view of people, open minded, and I think that's how my perspective has changed. For example, I learned actually one thing, this is actually a learning for me. Ken, one of the campers in my group, doesn't speak English and I didn't think to get to talk much with him. I tried to talk with him, but we didn't connect well because of the language. But when I was sick and in a bed, he came and put a made origami-swan in front of me. That was really touching me because the fact that we didn't talk much but he still put the effort and made origami-swan to make me feel better and I think that really opened our mind, just because you don't speak the same language just meaning we don't have a connection. That's cool.

S: At last, could you give a message for other campers in this year?

C: Campers in PRIC2016, I had a wonderful time. Meeting all of you was never forgetting good experience. I will charge it for lifetime and hope you as the same. Thank you all for a wonderful time.

Closing Ceremony

This was the last program of Main camp of PRIC2016. They received the certificates of PRIC2016 from the camp director, Mr. Iwakura. This year, Group R won the PRIC Olympic and received the certification. This year camper decided a surprise for the group counselors, giving certification to their group counselor. All campers were totally different from who they were at the opening ceremony. Their face was full of confident, brave and hope for the future. After closing words, the campers spontaneously gather together and took a picture. Coming back from closing ceremony to TYC, the campers intently wrote message book each other. After that, CFJ and some staff left TYC first with tears and then CFA and rest of staff went to NOMYC.

Tokyo Sightseeing / Farewell Party

It was the previous day of departing Japan. The campers chose where they wanted to go around in Tokyo and we visited Shibuya, Harajuku, and Meiji shrine. Buying souvenirs, learning how to pray at a shrine, and feeling the atmosphere of downtown Tokyo, they enjoyed the last moment with their camp mates.

At night, we had the farewell party, some of CFJs coming there. We all, including the campers, the staffs, board members and the others, shared the memories of PRIC 2016 with a photo slide show passed.

Last Day - Departure

On 17th August, all the CFAs departed Japan for their home countries. They left NOMYC for Narita International Airport, some left in early morning, some did in the afternoon and the others in the evening with the staffs. Approaching the boarding time, each camper said “see you” to other fellows, and went through the flight gate and left Japan. The camper from Australia departed at last and Pacific Rim International Student Camp 2016 ended.
